SENATOR HISCOCK SPEAKS.

A VIGOROUS PRESENTATION OF THE ISSUES.

AN ADDRESS BEFORE A CROWDED MEETING AT HUDSON.

Hudson, N. Y., Oct. 21 (Special).—Senator Frank Hiscock addressed this evening one of the largest and most enthusiastic political meetings ever held in this State. When Mr. Hiscock appeared escorted by the Hudson and Westchester County organizations composed of prominent local business men, the applause was deafening and it was some time before the meeting could be opened. Fulton Park, ex-United States Consul at Trinidad, introduced the speaker. The Carleton Quartet gave several excellent songs which pleased the large audience immensely. Senator Hiscock spoke as follows:

"I thank you for this most cordial greeting. We have heard it said that in this State there is apathy among the people. An audience of this size in this State emphatically refutes that idea. I know that tonight in more than half a hundred towns in this State there are gathered audiences like this to attest their devotion to the principles of the Republican party and take counsel how that party shall succeed in the coming election. I say to you that these fifty meetings are harbingers of success. (Applause.)

democracy told us in 1864 that the Republican party was collecting from the Treasury vast sums of money to squander and steal. That Republican officials were receiving from the Treasury and it was time to examine the books. The people were deceived by these lies, and the party that had governed the country since 1861, and in my judgment, the party that should and will govern it forever (applause), was turned out of power. Every Republican official retired from his office vindicated of these vile slanders, to receive the esteem of neighbors and friends on returning home.

"Four years ago Cleveland held the Government. He proved when he took office that the burden of taxation would be removed. Was it? No. We were told that the industries of the country were plunging through mire and despondency, that was the pirate, but nothing was done to relieve them. They pledged that the wharves could be loaded with foreign commerce; that our ships could sail every day. That the exchange of commodity promoted by a Democratic Administration would give life to all industries. I ask their enthusiastic supporters to-day to point to a single measure of relief. None, none, is the answer to that question. Cleveland held office four years and you can stretch upon a wall a canvas white as snow, and point on it all he proposed and accomplished by his friends, and the wharves were undisturbed. (Applause.) During that four years, agriculture was more unproductive than ever before in the history of the country. This is the best informed country in the world, and at every capital there is a man computing statistics. I know we were at Albany, (laughter and applause.) He told the truth, and from that to this he is pursued by Democrats trying to make a fair name—dirty from the mud of the interest of his party.

"Democracy favors a revenue tariff. This is a tariff imposed on the people, just high enough to let foreign goods in, not to keep them out. Americanism is the building up of our nationality. Republicanism is that also." (Applause.)

THE CAMPAIGN UP THE STATE.

MANY REPUBLICANS LISTEN TO ABLE DISCUSSIONS OF THE ISSUES.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 21 (Special).—Despite the fact that an elaborate fireworks display in honor of Columbus was taking place tonight, the Republican mass meeting held at the Hotel Hamilton, Syracuse, was one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in this State. Two thousand people heard Roosevelt, Mr. Horner, and many other prominent Republicans, who spoke and fully as many more were turned away. Mr. Horner spent the major part of his argument in discussing the tariff question. He had just come from a visit to Gloversville and Johnston, where he looked at the manufacture of gloves, "seven million dollars' worth of gloves," he said, "were made in these two places last year, more than in all of the United States elsewhere. Gloves that were selling at $48 a dozen before the McKinley bill was passed, are now selling for $13.50." The speaker said he recently visited Trenton, Neb., where the hemp binding twine works have been built since the McKinley bill was passed. "Since a tariff was put on hemp," he said, "it has been made in this country. I never heard of any new manufacturing enterprise started in the United States but that the Democrats said we could not make the proposed product." He mentioned salt, silk, linen and tinplate as examples, describing the advent of their manufacture here. In speaking of tinplate he said he was not put on the spot, but on tinplate. He said he was not put on the spot, but on tinplate. He said he was not put on the spot, but on tinplate.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 21 (Special).—The Veterans Boys Blue Republican Club of this city held a meeting in the Blue Room of the Hotel Hamilton, at 10 o'clock last night. E. H. Hester, of Elmira, was the speaker of the evening and was heartily greeted. Colonel J. G. McNitt was president of the meeting, and with Chairman Magill and a band escorted Mr. Hester to the hall. The hall was handsomely decorated with flags and pictures of Harrison and Reid. About seventy-five members of the Troy lodge of the Local Union of American Liberty were present. Colonel Hester made a most excellent address, based on the attitude of the Republican party on the leading questions of the campaign, such as the tariff, reciprocity and the monetary system. He held his audience for an hour and a half and made an excellent impression. Mention of the names of President Harrison was the signal for long-continued applause. The meeting was highly successful in every respect.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 21 (Special).—Jesse Belanger, of Cortland, and Adolph Lemay, of Albany, an enthusiastic Republican, were tonight the guests of the Young Men's Republican Club of this city. They were both present at the meeting, and made a most excellent address, based on the attitude of the Republican party on the leading questions of the campaign, such as the tariff, reciprocity and the monetary system. He held his audience for an hour and a half and made an excellent impression. Mention of the names of President Harrison was the signal for long-continued applause. MANY REPUBLICANS LISTEN TO ABLE DISCUSSIONS OF THE ISSUES.

The disincantation among the Democrats of the Fourteenth Ward, of Brooklyn, over the nomination of Edward M. Hays for Supervisor was fully shown last evening, when a rousing meeting was held at Grand Army Hall in Bedford. The meeting had been called by dissatisfied Democrats of the ward, who again placed the present incumbent, Patrick Ralph, in the race. Mr. Ralph will run as an independent candidate. Several times cheers were given in the meeting for Edward Clark, the Republican candidate for Assembly in the 14th District. The Democratic leaders in the Fourteenth Ward are fearful of the result in November, which will place the election of a Republican Assemblyman and Congressman from that district.

A DEMOCRATIC TRICK EXPOSED.

Detroit, Oct. 21.—A dispatch from Cheboygan, Mich., says: "Dr. Samuel Phelps, the People's party nominee for Representative in the Legislature, has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of Professor M. O. Graves, of Port Huron. Mr. Graves is the People's party nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction. Dr. Phelps charges him with fraudulently certifying to the nomination of P. B. Wachtel, the Democratic nominee, as the People's party candidate for Representative, in place of himself."

CONSULTING MR. BLAINE.

THE EX-Secretary's INTEREST IN THE CAMPAIGN.

An important conference was held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel on Thursday night. It was an informal one, and it was held in the room occupied by the ex-Secretary of State, James G. Blaine. Mr. Blaine visited the headquarters of the Republican National Committee on Thursday morning, and there had a short talk with Chairman Carter, of the National Committee, and Mr. Manley, of Maine, bodies several other members of the committee. Mr. Blaine said that he would be pleased to meet the members of the National Committee in his room at the hotel and to over the campaign as much in detail as possible. Chairman Carter and the other members of the committee readily accepted the suggestion, and they went to Mr. Blaine's room on Thursday evening and remained with him for some time. The entire campaign was gone over in the various States. Mr. Blaine looked upon as being more or less doubtful. Mr. Blaine offered a suggestion here and there that would be of value to the chairman. Mr. Blaine said that he was anxious that the Republican ticket should win, and that he would do all that he could to bring about that result.

CONSULTING MR. BLAINE.

THE EX-Secretary's INTEREST IN THE CAMPAIGN.

The chairman of the National Committee received many valuable suggestions from him in regard to the political work in this and other States. The meeting did not break up until a late hour in the night, and the members of the committee who met Mr. Blaine were none but devoted to the interest which he is taking in the campaign.

Efforts are being made to get ex-Secretary Blaine to make at least one or two more speeches before the end of the campaign. Mr. Blaine is anxious to do all that he can to secure the election of the Republican ticket, but he does not think he is strong enough to stand the strain of making a speech before a large audience. William M. Hahn, the chairman of the Speakers' Bureau of the Republican National Committee, had a long talk with Mr. Blaine yesterday and tried to get him to consent to make a speech or two. Mr. Blaine told him that he would do all that he could to aid the party, but he could not promise that he would make the speeches. He promised soon to give an answer. If Mr. Blaine speaks at all it will probably be at the meeting which is to be held in Cooper Union on November 4. This meeting will be presided over by Mr. Blaine, and the United States Senator from Maine, Congressman John Elwell, of Chicago, who is one of the brightest and most eloquent orators on the stump, and John Brennan, another brilliant orator, have been engaged to speak. Mr. Blaine would like to appear at this meeting, but this will depend altogether on his health. Mr. Blaine expressed his entire willingness to speak if he could and we may get him. If he speaks he will speak at some comparatively small meeting in this city.

Mr. Blaine spent another quiet day at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. He received a few visitors and took a walk in the afternoon up Broadway as far as Thirty-fourth.

TO CITIZENS OF NEW-YORK: Great frauds were perpetrated on the registry last year and the attempt is being made to repeat the same. It is your duty to see that no one registers from your house unless legally entitled to do so. EXAMINE THE REGISTRY LIST, a public copy of which will be at your place of registration every day up to Election Day. It will show that any person is registered from your house who does not live there report at once to the Republican County Committee at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Whitehead Reid's letter of acceptance, like all of his previous efforts, is a masterpiece of political wisdom, intellectual capacity and grasp of the political situation. He has practically proclaimed such an achievement impossible, but he gave his attention to the issues of the campaign.
